

Chaperones,

Thank you very much for taking the time to chaperone this school group through the Golden State Museum. We hope you have a wonderful time exploring this Museum.

These are the chaperone responsibilities for your assigned group:

- Please keep your group together and help guide them through the exhibits.
- The chaperone needs to stay with his/her group at all times.
- The Museum has many objects that are one of a kind. These are clearly marked, behind glass or behind physical barriers. Please have the students respect these boundaries.
- Please encourage appropriate museum manners and discourage destructive behavior. Make sure students are aware of other visitors' experiences.

The Golden State Museum is interactive. Encourage the students to open drawers, use the flipbooks, and push a few buttons in Posey's Café. Look for the reflective image of John Muir in his cabin and Dr. Yee in his herbal shop. Have the students take turns operating the joystick for the computerized 12 foot 3-D floor map of California. Encourage the students to participate in a computer game of virtual legislation in the Politics Gallery.

Any questions? Just ask a staff person or volunteer.

Thank you and have a great visit!

Chaperones,

Thank you very much for taking the time to chaperone this school group through the Golden State Museum. We hope you have a wonderful time exploring this Museum.

These are the chaperone responsibilities for your assigned group:

- Please keep your group together and help guide them through the exhibits.
- The chaperone needs to stay with his/her group at all times.
- The Museum has many objects that are one of a kind. These are clearly marked, behind glass or behind physical barriers. Please have the students respect these boundaries.
- Please encourage appropriate museum manners and discourage destructive behavior. Make sure students are aware of other visitors' experiences.

The Golden State Museum is interactive. Encourage the students to open drawers, use the flipbooks, and push a few buttons in Posey's Café. Look for the reflective image of John Muir in his cabin and Dr. Yee in his herbal shop. Have the students take turns operating the joystick for the computerized 12 foot 3-D floor map of California. Encourage the students to participate in a computer game of virtual legislation in the Politics Gallery.

Any questions? Just ask a staff person or volunteer.

Thank you and have a great visit!